

GOULLET, AUSTRALIAN, AND FOGLER WIN RACE

Six-Day Bicycle Record of 2,737 Miles Smashed When Six Teams Cover 2,751 Miles in 142 Hours.

Goulet Won Deciding Mile Match From Six Leaders by Sensational Spurt.

Madison Square Garden, New York, December 13.—Alfred Goulet, of Gippsland, Australia, and Joe Fogler, of Brooklyn, won the record breaking six-day bicycle race, which ended in Madison Square Garden at 10:05 o'clock tonight. Goulet won the deciding mile match from the six leaders by a sensational spurt on the final lap. Lawrence and Magin finished second, Root and McNamara, third; Halstead and Drobach, fourth; Verri and Brocco, fifth; and Hill and Ryan, sixth.

The six leading teams each covered 2,737 miles in the 142 hours, shattering the former record of 2,737 miles one lap, made by McFarland and Moran in 1908. The victory marked Fogler's fifth triumph in the New York six-day grind.

Final score, 142nd hour, 10 o'clock:

Goulet and Fogler, 2,751—0.
Verri and Brocco, 2,751—0.
Hill and Ryan, 2,751—0.
Root and McNamara, 2,751—0.
Magin and Lawrence, 2,751—0.
Drobach and Halstead, 2,751—0.
Mitten and Thomas, 2,751—0.
Corry and Walker, 2,751—0.
Former record, 2,737—1, made by McFarland and Moran in 1908.
Eight teams of the seventeen started survived the entire six days. In the final mile sprint Goulet doggedly followed Root's pace for nine laps. Hill, Verri, Lawrence and Halstead trailed in the order named, until the start of the last lap.
In the one-mile sprint to decide seventh and eighth positions, Thomas and Mitten beat out Corry and Walker. Goulet's time for the deciding mile was 1:50.

Twenty-Seven Cities Will Be Represented in Championship Matches.

Washington, December 13.—Twenty-eight clubs, representing twenty-seven cities, will contest in this season's indoor rifle shooting matches between civilian clubs for the Interclub rifle championship of the United States, a trophy for which has been presented by the War Department. The matches will begin the week of December 22 and continue throughout the winter, under the auspices of the National Rifle Association of America.

This year the clubs, instead of being divided into eastern and western leagues, will be in "A" and "B" classes, each representing clubs which have shown the highest efficiency in previous matches.

An individual gallery championship will be shot immediately after the close of the club matches.

PRINCETON WINS SOCCER GAME FROM HAVERFORD

Princeton, N. J., December 13.—In a hotly contested game this afternoon the Tiger soccer team wound up its 1913 season by defeating the Haverford College eleven, 4 to 1. The Tiger goal was threatened in the early play, time and again, and only the brilliant work of Jackson, the goalkeeper, prevented scoring. When the Princeton men recovered they fairly bombarded the Haverford goal, scoring four times before the end of the first half.

COACH WRAY TO SIGN HARVARD NAVY CONTRACT

Cambridge, Mass., December 13.—Coach James S. Wray, of the Harvard navy, expects some definite work as to his status in Harvard rowing next week. The Crimson rowing authorities have been making time awaiting the publication of Yale's choice for rowing men. Wray will surely be again signed, but it is now a matter of how many years his contract will extend. The agreement under which he is now working was for five years and runs out next June. His new contract will probably call for a shorter period of instruction, probably three years.

HARVARD CANCELS GAME WITH PITTSBURGH ELEVEN

Princeton, N. J., December 13.—The football advisory committee announces tonight the cancellation of the Pittsburgh game, which had been arranged for next fall. The date for the game was to conflict with that of the Syracuse game. This leaves the Tiger schedule for 1914 without any Western games slated. Williams College is likely to be placed on the schedule, which will be ready for publication next week.

TOTAL OF 8,000 ISLANDS UNDER AMERICAN FLAG

Washington, December 13.—The development of the island possessions of the United States since the unfurling of the American flag over them was described by O. P. Austin, secretary of the National Geographic Society, in an address on "Our Islands Through a Motion Picture Camera," before the members of the society at Masonic Temple yesterday afternoon and evening. He estimated the number of islands under the Stars and Stripes at 8,000.

"They now support a population of 10,000,000, or more than that of the entire United States a century ago," said Mr. Austin. "Their commerce exceeds $200,000,000, or more than that of the United States in any year prior to 1850; the American capital invested in them aggregates approximately $400,000,000, and $1,000,000,000 worth of their products each year and take in exchange nearly $100,000,000."

"The island of Luzon, in the Philippines, is as large as Belgium, Holland and Denmark, which supports a population of 15,000,000; Mindanao is as big as Indiana; Hawaii is as large as Connecticut, and Porto Rico is larger than

JAMESTOWN TRACK NOT SOLD BY LEVY

President James E. Prince, of Jamestown Jockey Club, Denies Report of Sale—Levy Is Simply the Lessee and Has Nothing to Sell, Says Prince.

Norfolk, Va., December 13.—James E. Prince, president of the Jamestown Jockey Club, to-night denied the report printed in Northern papers that Bob Levy, manager and lessee of the track, had sold his interest to a Chicago bookmaking syndicate. Mr. Prince said: "Mr. Levy had nothing to sell. He does not own any of the Jamestown track. He is simply the lessee, and his lease expires next year." Mr. Prince says he would not lease the track to undesirable parties, even if Levy did want to transfer it. The Jamestown track is owned exclusively by local interests. It was purchased during the Jamestown Exposition by James E. Prince, the late John Cashin, and others.

DELAWARE AND RHODE ISLAND PUT TOGETHER

"When the United States took hold of Porto Rico fifteen years ago there was but one building in the entire island which had been erected for school purposes; to-day there are 1,200 buildings erected for school purposes. There were 25,000 pupils enrolled in the public schools in the first year of the American administration; now the total is 175,000."

The island then had one well constructed road of forty miles, connecting its two principal cities; now there are nearly 1,000 miles of road suitable for motor vehicles. Then the production of sugar, the principal crop, was 65,000 tons a year, now it is 265,000. The foreign commerce was about $20,000,000 a year; now it is nearly $100,000,000. Then the island bought of us about $2,500,000 worth annually; now nearly $10,000,000. Porto Rico and Hawaii supply one-fourth of the enormous amount of sugar used in the United States.

"Hawaii has been extremely prosperous since it came permanently under the American flag in 1900. The assessed value of property has increased one-half in that time, the value of the sugar crop has more than doubled, the deposits in the banks have trebled, and the deposits in savings banks have quadrupled. The irrigation system is the marvel of the engineering world, and the quantity of sugar produced per acre is far in excess of that of any other spot on the globe."

"The Alaskan Islands and mainland cost us $75,000,000, an expenditure that many believed to be quite unjustifiable; yet for many years the annual value of the sealskins alone approximated the cost of the entire area, while at present the value of the canned salmon sent us from Alaska in

RUSSIA BIDS FOR TRADE OF THE U. S.

Government Creates New "Samples Museum" in St. Petersburg to Attract American Buyers.

[Special Cable to The Times-Dispatch.] St. Petersburg, December 13.—The Russian government has just taken definite steps toward improving its trade relations with the United States under the new reduced tariff.

It has created a department within its Chamber of Export to be known as the Samples Museum. Here all descriptions of raw and manufactured articles for which there is a promising American market will be displayed.

The difficulties besetting Russian commercial travelers who cross the Atlantic to organize business was discussed at a meeting of twenty representative Americans held here, and as this is the main obstacle to the growth of Russian exports to the United States, it was pointed out that the new Samples Museum was created mainly to overcome the difficulty by bringing the goods directly under the eyes of American agents in Russia.

One large American house has just ordered 100,000 articles of Russian wood carved by peasants to be sent to New York, the goods all being of the useful or decorative class.

MEDICAL SCHOOLS IN U. S. ARE STEADILY DECREASING

Washington, December 13.—A gradual but steady decrease in the number of medical schools in the United States is indicated in a report compiled by the Federal Bureau of Education. There also in 1913 was a considerable decrease in both the number of students attending these schools and the number of graduates.

The figures show that there were fourteen fewer schools, 1,209 fewer students and a decrease of 500 in the number of graduates in 1913 as compared with 1912.

Although the number of students has decreased, the number of women studying medicine showed an increase last year. Of the 18,451 students in 1912, 712 were women, while in 1913 there were 835 women among the 17,238 students. Only seventy women graduated this year, as compared with 112 in 1912.

Reduction in the number of medical schools is part of a general movement inaugurated some years ago for the improvement of these institutions. Entrance requirements and courses of study have been materially raised in practically all of the States.
